Alan Fuchsberg
The Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Firm

Dear Mr. Fuchsberg,

I am writing to you in your capacity as a member of the Board of Governors of the Touro Law Center. On April 6, I had a written exchange with an associate of yours in a computer "chat" about a request for guidance and assistance. This request still stands with your law firm, and I am expecting a response.

Included in this fax is the letter to U. S. House of Representatives that explains why my rights are being violated, my latest letter to the New York Civil Liberties Union, and the email I sent to the Touro Law Center after my conversation with your associate.

Very truly yours,
David Roemer

Dear Mr. Roemer:

Thank you for having contacted the Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Firm seeking representation on your potential civil lawsuit pursuant to constitutional provision of freedom of speech and/or your misconduct complaint against the judiciary.

Regretfully, based on the information you provided us, my partners at the firm have determined that we cannot accept a Retainer in this potential matter.

Consequently, the Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Firm WILL NOT make any claim, take any further action, or bring any lawsuit on your behalf.

In declining to undertake this matter, the firm is not expressing an opinion on whether you might prevail if an action is eventually pursued.

On the contrary, we encourage you to consult other attorneys without delay.

You should be advised that there are Statutes of Limitations that limit the time within which a civil lawsuit must be commenced.

Furthermore, there are exceptions which may be applicable here which would extend or reduce the time within which to bring the action.

Therefore, should you wish to pursue this matter further, you are advised to CONSULT OTHER ATTORNEYS IMMEDIATELY so that your rights are protected.

Thank you again for having consulted the Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Firm.

I am sincerely sorry that we were unable to find a case here, and wish you the best of luck should you decide to pursue this matter further.

Sincerely,

Jaehyun Oh, Esq.

Dear Ms. Oh,

I've attached the letter Alan Fuchsberg received on Monday, April 08, 2019 at 09:58 AM. I did not ask this law firm to represent me. Your letter is not at all responsive to my communications with Mr. Fuchsberg and your staff member. I consider your letter some kind of hoax, with you probably being more sinned against than sinning. I can understand practicing attorneys wanting to turn a blind eye towards the Second Circuit's misconduct.

I've attached the podcast of my oral argument before the Second Circuit, as well as the letter I sent to Harry Ballan and Myra Berman of the Touro Law Center. Also attached is my letter to the House of Representatives. You can read all of the documents in this scandal at

<http://www.newevangelist.me/booth-davis/ministry.html>

If you don't re-think your response, I'll be contacting all of the members of the Board of Governors of the Touro Law Center about this matter.

Very truly yours,
David Roemer
